At the end of a charming alley dotted with artists' studios, this exceptional house is oozing with charm and will immerse you in an atmosphere of contemporary art and design. Perfectly situated close to the Luxembourg Gardens and the iconic Bon Marché and also within easy reach of multiple transport options for getting around during the Olympic Games. The vast living spaces and private outdoor space is indeed a rare find. Quiet, but in the heart of Paris, there is no better place to explore the city.
